

Final Programme

 cybersecurityconference.dipri.org/index.php/programme

September 16, 2021

1) INTERNATIONAL LAW AND CYBERSECURITY

- 8:30 h. Registration.
- 9:00 h. Opening Speech: Pilar Aranda, Rector of the University of Granada.
- 9:30 h. Professor Nicholas Tsagourias, University of Sheffield, “Cybersecurity and the Problem of Attribution”.
- 10:30 h. Professor Karine Bannelier, University Grenoble-Alpes, “The Due Diligence Obligation and Cyberspace”.

11:30 h. Coffee Break

12:00 h. PANEL 1 – The use of force and self-defense

- Yarik Kryvoi, British Institute of International and Comparative Law, “Responding to public and private cyberattacks: self-defence and countermeasures”.
- Triantafyllos Kouloufakos, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, “Cyber operations as threats of force: A welcome addition or splitting hair?”.

13:00 h. Lunch

15:00 h. PANEL 2 – Responses to low-level cyber attacks

- Leonhard Kreuzer, Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law, “Sovereignty in cyberspace – a rule without content?”.
- Ricardo López Hernández, Pompeu Fabra University, “The attribution of responsibility to a State for operations conducted by non-state actors in cyberspace”.

16:00 h. Coffee Break

16:30 h. PANEL 3 – Cybercrime regulation

- Audrey Guinchard, University of Essex, “Amending the Convention on cybercrime n.185 and Directive 2013/40/EU on attacks against information systems”.
- Ana Gascón Marcén, University of Zaragoza, “The Budapest Convention and the new initiative for a UN Convention to fight cybercrime”.

19:30 h. Social dinner

September 17, 2021

CYBERSECURITY THREATS AND RESPONSES

- 9:30 h. Professor Scott Shackelford, Indiana University, “Finding Cyber Peace in an Internet of Everything”.
- 10:30 h. Professor Matthias Kettemann, Leibniz Institute for Media Research, “Cybersecurity Made in Europe: Globalizing the EU’s Cybersecurity Norms?”

11:30 h. Coffee Break

12:00 h. Professor Russell Buchan, University of Sheffield, “Cyber Espionage and International Law”.

13:00 h. Lunch

15:00 h. PANEL 4 – Arms control and cybersecurity

- Galina Cornelisse, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, “Legal Responses to Arms Trafficking on the Dark Web: Human Security and Transnationalising Law Enforcement”.
- Heejin Kim, UNSW Law Sydney, “Regulating the Global Export Control on Cyber Surveillance Technology”.

16:00 h. Coffee Break

16:30 h. PANEL 5 – State practice regarding cyber attacks

- Csaba Törő, Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary, “Sanctions, countermeasures and self-help in response to threats and attacks in cyberspace: evolving complementary EU and NATO policies”.
- Guillem Colom Piella, Pablo Olavide University, “The Russian and Chinese approaches to information operations”.
- Chema Suárez Serrano, University of Seville, “Lies as means of war, civilian population as military objective - What answer does international law offer?”

17:45 h. Closing Address